

Raman spectra of some pigments used by Parmigianino in a wall painting realised in 1522-24 in the second left Chapel of the S. Giovanni Evangelista Abbey in Parma, Italy. Raman analysis reveal that the artist used a large variety of colouring substances.